

Disclaimer / Privacy Statement

Disclaimer

Our website is maintained for your personal use and for its members. We endeavour to ensure the context is accurate and up-to date but does not accept liability for errors or omissions. We are not a medical organisation , but purely our primary purpose is to help the suffering alcoholic and offer them a suggest programme of recovery.

Access and use by you of our website constitutes acceptance of our privacy statement.

Privacy statement

AA NE Wales does not disclose your personal information unless required to do so by law. We take all reasonable precautions to prevent the loss ,misuse or alternation of personal data/ information and it remains within our closed circuit of members who a bound by its traditions with one primary purpose to support and help people who access our site for this purpose.nt